Voyager

Voyager Beach Resort, Mombasa

Location

Moored seven kilometres north of Mombasa city centre, Voyager Beach Resort's convenient 'berth' gives guests easy access to a huge variety of historical, sporting and cultural attractions, including Africa's largest crocodile farm and the world-famous Haller Park (formerly Bamburi Nature Trail). The vibrant, ship-themed resort is famous for hosting some of Africa's finest family entertainments and animation programmes, including unique themed journeys across the seven seas, culinary extravaganzas, and special music, fashion, comedy and acrobatic shows.

Accommodation

Voyager Beach Resort offers 232 spacious cabins, including 68 sea-view cabins, 96 garden-view cabins, 12 Superior sea-view cabins, 51 Superior garden-view cabins, and two large studio cabins. For those seeking a little extra luxury, there are three extravagant suites with large living areas. Every cabin has a secluded balcony and is equipped with its own telephone, air-conditioning unit and electronic safe.

Public Areas

Voyager Beach Resort has three restaurants catering for a wide variety of tastes and appetites. The Mashua Restaurant offers sumptuous buffets with different themes for dinners. The Mashua serves breakfast for all guests from 7-9.30am. On the outdoor terrace is the Captain's Table, where a member of our senior staff entertains guests each evening. Our à la carte seafood restaurant, the Smugglers' Cove, is located in a hidden coral cove and specialises in seafood and grilled meat dishes. Located beside the sports pool, the Minestrone Restaurant serves sandwiches, pizzas, light lunches and table d'hôte dinners with an emphasis on Italian cuisine. The Voyager has four bars: the Kaskazi Bar beside the sports pool, the 24-hour Harbour Bar, the cocktail-mixing Sports Bar, and the panoramic Lookout Bar, with sweeping views over our private bay.
